Persecution Update: Uzbekistan

Last November, a pastor in Uzbekistan was leading a service at a hotel when the meeting was disrupted by the police. Pastor Sergei Kozin was severely fined for holding a religious service and possessing religious literature away from his church building. The charges brought by the government officials included numerous police errors, including the use of a false witness. In another case, the police raided the private home of an Uzbek believer, L. Mamazhanov, and confiscated 100 Christian books and religious DVDs. Now this family is also facing a huge fine that they cannot afford. The Uzbek government continues to deal harshly with Christians and other religious groups. Uzbekistan has been designated by the U.S. State Department as one of the worst countries for abusing religious freedom. Please pray that Pastor Kozin and Mr. Mamazhanov would be strengthened by God's presence as they stand for Christ under oppressive persecution.

The nursery ministry not only comforts and encourages little ones toward Christ, but also allows moms and dads to receive needed spiritual refreshment in services. Ladies, would you prayerfully consider serving one hour a month in our nursery to meet this need? Contact Lori Cito.

Welcome God's Servants

Our missionaries, Jonathan and Sarah Farmer are with us this morning to give a ministry update. This evening, Beth Kaessner will be discussing her work in Central Asia. These are choice followers and servants of Christ. Come to hear how God is working.

February 25 through March 1st, Jeff and Anna Musgrave will be here to lead us in The Exchange Seminar, an evangelism and discipleship training program. Sessions include daytimes on Saturday, February 25, and Monday - Thursday evenings. If you could watch a few children during these times, call the Church Office. Please let Pastor Cross know if you would like to register.

Faith Baptist School Homecoming

This Friday, join the FBS Pioneers in a special evening of activities, door prizes, pep band music, Cup Cake Wars and, above all, cheering for our basketball teams against our rival from Front Range. ### WORD for the Heart

1 John 4:7-9

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.
